

It's go time!

And just like that, there's a chill in the air and leaves are turning vibrant fall colors. For us, that means only one thing: Election Day is right around the corner. In just about four weeks, voters head to the polls in what may be the most important midterm election of our lifetime.

Let's do this, Mendham!

Calling all volunteers

The Mendham Twp Dem Committee is seeking volunteers for a number of important roles between now and early November. We need:

- Friendly homes for Meet and Greets with our local candidates. Whether you can host a daytime coffee, lemonade on the deck, or cocktails in the living room, we need your help reaching out to neighbors and friends.
- Canvassers: Please sign up to walk your neighborhood with Brenda and Trish.
- Phone bank volunteers: Please help out with our phone banks 6-9 p.m. on Fri. 10/12, Thurs 10/18, Thurs 10/25 and Thurs 11/1 through Tues 11/6 (Get Out the Vote - Election Day)

If you can help out with any of these efforts, please contact us at mendhamtwpdems@gmail.com, or reach out to the campaign directly on its website: <https://grantobrien4mendham.org>.

Standing room only at the fall Harvest Party

Thanks to all who attended the Mendham Democrats Harvest Party! It was standing room only. So many friends came out to celebrate the season with us. Thanks to Glenn Thompson, our emcee for the night, to Diane Dinklage for organizing the event, and to all our volunteers.

It was great to have so many candidates attend. Thanks to all:

- Morris Freeholders, Mary Dougherty, Rupande Mehta, Rich Corcoran;
- Morris County Clerk, Shala Gagliardi;
- Mendham Boro: Mayor Mark Washburne, Town Council Laura Montenegro & Kristin Berkinsky;
- Mendham Twp Committee, Brenda Grant & Trish O'Brien;
- Reps from Mikie Sherrill Congressional campaign.

And thanks to Mendham Township Committeewoman Amalia Duarte for joining us at the event.

In case you missed it

On September 17, Michael Merritt, campaign manager for Grant O'Brien 4 Mendham, sent the following message via email. It's included here verbatim for anyone who missed it:

Dear Friends,

Brenda, Trish and I want to make sure you have the surprising news about the upcoming Mendham Township Committee election. We haven't received any official communication, but after running in the Republican primary and winning a place on the ballot, Stan Gorski has apparently withdrawn "for personal reasons". Word is that his party utilized established 11th-hour mechanisms to place Nick Monaghan on the ballot in his place.

This is the third Township Committee resignation/appointment in the last eleven months. Brenda Grant and Trish O'Brien are proud to have received strong support in the primary to win their place on the ballot, are fully committed to the upcoming election, and with your support on November 6, to their terms serving the community on the Township Committee, moving Mendham forward!

We appreciate your support and want to share this unexpected campaign update.
